PROPOSE TO BUILD
ELECTRIC RAILWAY

Promoters of Shenandoah Valley Company Make Application for Charter—Speaker Byrd Confident of Solid Democratic Delegation from Virginia.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) Winchester, Va., November 3.—Application has been made by the promoters of the Shenandoah Valley Railway Company to the Secretary of State of West Virginia, at Charleston, for articles of incorporation and a charter.
The application states that the company proposes to build a track from Richmond, Va., southward through Berkeley County, of which Martinsburg is the seat, and through Frederick County, Va., to Winchester, and also to Charleston and Shepherds-town, Jefferson County, W. Va. Another route is to be from Martinsburg to a point near Williamsport, Pa., on the Potomac River, where it is the intention to make a connection with the Hagerstown-Frederick electric line.
The central office of the company is in Martinsburg. The capital stock is $1,000,000, and the shares are to be divided into the denomination of $100 each. The incorporators are Frank E.
Wilson, John W. Stewart, S. H. Meyer, Frederick Gray, Dr. James W. McSherry and Attorney Clarence E.

Benjamin T. Husey and Miss Harri-ett Elizabeth Walker, members of prominent Berkeley County families, were married a few days ago at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Walker, near Bunker Hill, by Rev. Sheridan Bussey, of near Harrisburg, Pa., assisted by Rev. R.
Ashlin White, pastor of the Gerardstown Presbyterian church, and Mrs. Bussey will live on the former's farm near Gerardsstown.

The annual banquet of the Golden Rule Bible Class of Braddock Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was held at the Winchester Hotel, and was attended by upwards of 200 members and some special guests. The principal feature of the evening was the address by Thomas G. Hayes, of Baltimore; A. D. Darby, of Martinsburg, W. Va.; Rev. J. W. Duffey, D. D.; I. N. Good and Dr. J. L. Whitlock, of Winchester, J. L. Lundy, of Leesburg, Md. The class is one of the largest men's Bible classes in the Baltimore Conference.

Speaker Richard Evelyn Byrd, of the Virginia House of Delegates, who has been visiting in the city since the Wilson's campaign before and since the Baltimore convention, has returned from the Ninth District, where he has been making speeches for the national ticket and also for General Rufus A.
Ayer, the Democratic candidate for Congress, and is confident that Virginia will send a solid Democratic delegation to the next Congress, which means that Congressman C. B. Stump, of the Ninth District, will be defeated by his Democratic opponent, Mr. Byrd.
At least thirty-seven States at Tuesday's election. These opinions were voiced by Mr. Byrd when he addressed a large meeting of the Democrats of the city at the Hotel Richmond, Saturday night at 8 o'clock. He is to be the principal speaker at a monster meeting to be held here to-morrow night in the courthouse auditorium.

Graham P. Blaney, of New York, who owns the noted Tulleries farm, near Boyce, Clarke County, which was for many years the home of the late Colonel John P. Blaney, who died last year, has been in the city for the most exact replica of the estate of the same name in France, held a large crowd show last week on the lawn of the Tulleries farm, which was a large gathering of farmers and their families. Mr. Blaney distributed handsome cash prizes among those who corn made the best showing. Last year he distributed similar prizes to turkey growing contest. His generous attitude toward the farmers of Clarke County has resulted in much keen and friendly competition.
